In time I will be gone, away from here
Lift my burden from the earth and oceans
I'd like to imagine what could even happen
If you and I would collide
Collide

I want to be your family
I want to see what's in your dreams
I want to spend all of my days on you
I want to kill your enemies
I want to fight for all your dreams
I want to spend all of my days on you

This life is brittle pale and thin, starving for loss
Of which occurs when things like this miss their mark
I'd like to show you why I want you so desperately
I'm so callous, but you complete me

You're everything that I'm not
You're the complement of my attributes
Without you I'd be lost
The biggest mistake I could ever choose
Would be to let you leave
I'd rather rip out all of my teeth
Then have you far from me
From all the only things
