Searching my broken mind
I just can't seem to close my eyes
I stutter through a conversation
Only to learn I contributed nothing
Lying down around the house, trying to be unconscious
The skin that wraps my body is too pale to see
It's like the world can see right through me

Why did I lose all that weight?
Why did I forget your name?
Why did I succumb to...
Why did I succumb to

All the liars that claim that they're the ones
When all the people they say the things I've done
When I forget you and start to lose it all
Will you stay with me?

I don't know what to do about this
Has my entire life been wanting?
With all my enemies they're watching me
So let me go, just let me go
