i live on the edge and don't know what my name is but i know i'll be playing, whatever the game is and once that you've blurred her it really no shame is and all that we do there for just for the famous i like to set up things, i like to be winning i love to betray you, i love to be sinning i'm instantly cheating, as soon as you leave me but i can't be resisted as long as I'm singing

oh you fell in love 4x

There's too many killers facing my way but there's so many mirrors making my day too many braggers about to confirm that there's so many lessons, too much to be learned

You know i can instantly smash you to pieces killing your faith with some brand new releases but victims ain't victims in case of my deeds cause i'll give you pleasure whatever your needs Socially wrecking i stumble and crave for a life that is prettier than i have paid for hoping or wishing, you tell me the truth cause you know that we're lying, it's all that we do

There's too many killers facing my way
solo

Too many killers facing my way but there's so many mirrors making my day
that there's so many lessons, too much to be learned
