"ROCK AND ROLL BAND" Words and music (c) 1998, Richard D. Diakun
A rock and roll band is touring the land. They're playing their songs to all kinds of thongs, and meeting their fans. They're comin' to town, a rock and roll band, and you and your friends,
with tickets in hand, are goin' to the show.
Rock and roll band, with guitars in hand.
Their poster's on your wall.
Partyin' gang, you might get to hang with them after the show. Rock and roll band, with guitars in hand. Their poster's on your wall.
Partyin' gang, you might get to hang with them after the show. Does your mama know where you wanna go after the show? You got it planned, gonna meet the band... anything goes!
Would your daddy say that it's O.
K. when you're on your knees?
Would you say "it was fun" when you were done with the boys in the band? A spoon for your nose and off go your clothes "What was your name?" Rock and roll band with you in their hands then to the next town. They're gone from your town, a rock and roll band, and you and your friends,
with brassieres in hand, are walkin' home.
A rock and roll band is touring the land.
They're playing their songs to all kinds of thongs, and meeting their fans.
