

What So "That Kind Of Woman"

This shall not be just a romantic song,
this is meant as a confession.
I don't know if it's right or wrong,
I believe in my obsession.
There is no justice in love and war,
no leading rules, it ain't easy.
You are so close but still so far, why are you so damn busy? Last night I dreamed that you're loving me. Just in my dreams I can leave the reality. You are the one who shows me the light.
You are that kind of woman and I want dance with you tonight. "No time for love" is your rallying cry.
Time is what you make of it.
"What never was born cannot die!"
"Just my heart breaks a little bit."
Last night I dreamed that you're loving me.
Just in my dreams I can leave the reality.
You are the one who shows me the light.
You are that kind of woman and I want dance with you tonight. If loving you is wrong I don't wanna be right. If youth is half the battle, I am ready to fight.
In my dreams we're passing already the moon and I hope
we both will reach the stars too.
Last night I dreamed that you're loving me.
Just in my dreams I can leave the reality.
You are the one who shows me the light.
You are that kind of woman and I want dance with you tonight.
