t's messing me up
I'm out of my head
People change
That's all you said

Start to freeze
Buckling knees
Can't shake off
What's pulling at me

Something's taking me over
Taking me over
Something's taking me over
I think it comes back to you

There are no heroes
Without any flaws
Are you the effect
Or are you the cause

Something's got a hold of me
Throw the key into the sea

Eye to eye and skin to skin
Like a sin it pulls you in

And it's taking me over
It always comes back to you

Don't know what's got hold of me
Threw the key into the sea
Eye to eye and skin to skin
Like a sin you pull me in

And it's taking me over
It always comes back to you

You know it's taking me over
It always comes back to you
