I was not the one
Who was on the run
I was not afraid
Of what might come this way

Always on your mark
You had that running start
I was not the one
Now I've come so undone

I misunderstood
When you said ???for good???
???Good??? I would not say
When things turn out this way

Always on your mark
Ready, set, let's part

I was not the one
Now I've come so undone

I've come so undone

Oh what a happy day
If I saw you coming my way
And oh wouldn't it be fine
If you walked back into my life

I was not the one
Who was on the run
I was not the one
Now I've come so undone

I've come so undone

Undone
