Verse 1:

The carnival is over now you say
You must have met the juggler yesterday
And I in all my silly innocence
Gave to you my last fifty cents

Chorus:

You're like a carousel a carousel
You picked me up and kicked me off like all is well
You're like a carousel oh well oh well
You're like a carousel a carousel
You run around in circles like a ride from Hell
You're like a carousel from Hell oh well

Verse 2:

When I held you in our first embrace
The gypsy woman laughed into my face

And all the spotted horses fell in line
Knowing you would soon give them the sign

[Repeat Chorus]

Bridge:

Came inside bought a ticket to ride
Stood in line waited quite some time
Took my turn had a lot to learn
A nickel a ride you're never satisfied
Never satisfied never satisfied

Verse 3:

Well I must admit I had myself some fun
If I was a clown you'd be the one
But I don't care for living in a tent
Anyway my money's all been spent

[Repeat Chorus]
