I took my fire upon a mountain
To mock all truth that flatters men
And I damned all hope
That tomorrow shows
For I cursed all life there is
As screaming ghosts
No heaven knows
And I want to be high as the suns that shine
All the time
I took my fire upon a mountain
To sift through thoughts of all beasts and men
And I purged the gold thru which the world shall end

For I courted the Dragon
Yeah that old serpent
And I got to be high as the suns that shine
All the time
And all of thee
Shall be drunk of me
Oh yes you will
I think I'm
Deggael
