Darling
There is an angel
To teach you see
With the eyes of Emerald Green
For darling
All love is witchery
Godforsaken deviltry
To draw our blood for all world to drink
And love will come
And love will go
Oh suffer not a wish to live
For you can't follow
Darling
There is an angel
To teach you wisdom of all Heaven
The pride of all Hell
For darling
All knowledge comes with pain
And things are still the same

No matter what their name
And if nothing is true
More or less
The only truth must be Nothingness
(The call of the 2nd & 3rd Aethyr by Fr. Perdurabo)
Darling
Be sure of the Devil
Be wary of knots
Tied as a ladder
Under a hill
For darling
There is an angel
To teach you see
With the eyes of Emerald Green
