

Whores of Babylon, The "Veritas"

Visit "Veritas" on MotoLyrics.com

All of the battles lost and won All of the things we've said and done Become the dark that wells beneath the floor Lost in a world that I don't know

Anymore

Where no truth will set you free

All of the lessons that we learned All of the bridges that we burnt Boons for a cruel, jealous god to trade Lost in a world that slowly turned

All insane

Where no truth will set you free

All beauty houses the heart of pain Kissed by the evil In good contained
And all truth's grown sad with ages taint All of our charmed lives estranged
