Slowly she moves
Turns the lonely pages in her mind
A plaintiff with a cause
She's gonna make it through this wonderland
She's gonna live, live through time, yeah
Gently she moves
Careful not to step on the broken glass
She lost the night before
She's the one gonna wonder
Gonna wonder if it's right or wrong
She's gonna live, live through time, yeah
There's always something, more I can see
There's always something, something more I can be
There's always something more I can say
There's gonna be a better life for me.
I'm gonna find it someday, yeah!

Now slowly she moves
Turns the lonely pages in her mind
A plaintiff with a cause
She's gonna make it through this wonderland
She's gonna live, live through time, yeah!
I'm gonna leave you
I've got to feel you
I'm gonna leave you
I've got to feel you, yeah.
I'm gonna leave you
I've got to feel you, yeah
I'm gonna leave you
I'm already gone
