Haven't been so honest with myself this year
Really haven't dared to say the words I feel

So now I run
Searching the streets
Turning away, I'm turning away
So now I run
To see who I meet
Any so bold, a person so bold
Bold as love

Never listen to what mama said to me
Think I can't see how I went so wrong, so wrong

So now I run
Searching the streets
Turning away, I'm turning away
So now I run
To see who I meet
Any so bold, a person so bold
Bold as love

Guess one day I will be good as gold
(bold as love)
Until then I'll keep you in my dreams

So now I run
Searching the streets
Turning away, I'm turning away
So now I run
To see who I meet
Any so bold, a person so bold
So now I run
Searching the streets
Turning away, I'm turning away
So now I run
To see who I meet
I'm turning away
