Sometimes you're eyes reflex the blue sky
So pure and simple I could cry
Why is love so complicated?
Isn't it just a little bit overrated?

It should be me girl, and it should be you
We should be feeling free instead of feeling blue

It should be me it should be you
It should be me it should be you
Do you feel the way I do?
It should be me it should be you

See how the lonely river runs
Into the sea where it belongs
One has got a rep(?) it is a little bit better
Don't you think it's time for you and me to put our hearts together?

It should be me girl and it should be you
We should be feeling free instead of feeling blue

It should be me it should be you
It should be me it should be you
Do you feel the way I do?
It should be me it should be you

So tell me, why is love so complicated?
Isn't it just a little bit overrated?

It should be me it should be you
It should be me it should be you
Deep down inside you feel it too
It should be me it should be you

Oh yeaah
(It should be me it should be you)
Put our hearts together, mmm
(It should be me it should be you)
I can't live without you
(Do you feel the way I do?)

It should be me it should be you)
