She's back to her old drugs, didn't think I would notice
And all those other people keep bringing her down,
And all those other people keep bringing her down,

She's back down back out, she's calling me out back down back out,
She's callin' me out, just to follow the crowd, come on follow me now

She's back to them dope tricks, let's face it she's hopeless,
And all those other people keep breaking her down,
Cuz her mind is ill and her will is weak
She'll do anything possible to avoid the sleep,
Whether it's a pill that she crushes up to sniff or eat
Cuz when she dreams she just dreams too deep
Cuz her mind is ill and her will is weak
She'll do anything possible to avoid the sleep,
Whether it's a pill that she crushes up to sniff or eat
Cuz when she dreams she just dreams too deep

She's back down back out, she's calling me out back
down back out,
She's callin' me out, just to follow the crowd, come on
follow me now (Cuz we never went) Back down back out, she's calling me out back down back out,
She's callin' me out, just to follow the crowd, come on
follow me now

See me I have an impeccable sense of direction And I'm planning and praying and expecting to keep her movin' forward
But she she is so obstruct What the hell did you expect to accomplish with all this nonsense
And now you're huffin' down the collar of my shirt
Ya you're breathing down my neck

She's got no common sense she's got no confidence,

She's got no common sense she's got no confidence,

She's back down back out, she's calling me out back
down back out,
She's callin' me out, just to follow the crowd, come on
follow me now

Back down back out back down she's callin' me out
Back down back out back down, she's calling me out
Just to follow the crowd, come on follow me now

Back down back out back down she's callin' me out
Back down back out back down, she's calling me out
Just to follow the crowd, come on follow me now
