I had a dream about our future
I had so many things to say I wish there was a time and a place for us to be together

Our world is not here to stay
All we have for sure is today

If there won't be another day
If this is the final wave
I don't wanna be without you without you

I saw myself getting older
I saw my friends and family
I wish those memories we have could just live forever

Our world is not here to stay
All we have for sure is today

If there won't be another day
If this is the final wave
I don't wanna be without you
without you - stay!

If there won't be another day
If this is the final wave
I don't wanna be without you
without you - stay!

Stay for another day
Stay for another day
Stay for another day
Stay for another day

If there won't be another day
If this is the final wave
I don't wanna be without you
without you - stay!

If there won't be another day
If this is the final wave
I don't wanna be without you
without you
