Dead Inside by Widescreen Mode Can't feel it any more

Can't see the point at all

Can't make it back to shore

Like brothers and sisters

Not in love any more

Not getting along at all

Ready for a war

I'm dead inside

I lost my heart

In the middle of this fight

I've been dead inside

since you turned your back on me

[x2]

It used to be alright

It used to be so fine

There used to be sunshine

Like mothers and fathers

Can't talk any more

Can't get along at all

Ready for a war

I'm dead inside I lost my heart In the middle of this fight I've been dead inside since you turned your back on me [x2] Can't feel it any more Can't see the point at all Can't make it back to shore Not in love any more Not getting along at all I lost my heart A long time ago I don't believe it's growing back in this life I lost my heart A long time ago I don't believe it's growing back in this life I'm dead inside I lost my heart In the middle of this fight I've been dead inside since you turned your back on me [x2]
