Nothing left for me to do, but feed on memories of you
Can't stop staring at pictures of me and you
All the things we never spoke of
All the things we should have done
If you leave me now, you're leaving me
Like a bullet on the run
On the run

Head over heels but I'm feeling half past dead
Darling don't get over me, get under me instead
Lend me your ears, let's leave some things unsaid
Darling don't get over me, get under me instead

Not too proud to beg if that's what I'm left to do
Left alone with dreams while he's got you
All the things we never spoke of
All the things we should have done
If you leave me now, you're leaving me
Like a bullet on the run
On the run

Head over heels but I'm feeling half past dead
Darling don't get over me, get under me instead
Lend me your ears, let's leave some things unsaid
Darling don't get over me, get under me instead

Head over heels but I'm feeling half past dead
Darling don't get over me, get under me instead
Lend me your ears, let's leave some things unsaid
Darling don't get over me, get under me instead

Darling don't get over me, get under me instead
