The sounds they will carry me
The angels all want to marry me
Everyone here is sorry
Everyone says why did we let it happen to Charlie..
Charlie
Back here in the world.
Back here in the world.

Well the sun sure must be bright
Like the stinging you know it takes away the cold
Maybe you thought no one cared (no one cared)
Or maybe you just got tired of trying to get something fair.
But we loved you.
Back here in the world.
Back here in the world,

When the skies clear are you considering
The changes and rearranges after your escape
Would your eyes wanna make the rain clouds come
When you thought nobody knew, you, will surely be missed.
Ah you.. you will surely be missed.

And somebody said if you came back today.
You wouldn't have anything good to say
I believe its not true.. (its not true)
I believe you'll still find something about you.. oooooo
Back here in the world.
Back here in the world,.

When the skies clear are you considering
The changes and rearranges after your escape
Would your eyes wanna make the rain clouds come.
When you thought nobody knew, you, will surely be missed.
Ah you.. you will surely be missed
Back here in the world.

You, you will surely be. you will be, Ahhh.
