I heard you tried to come today
I tried to make my great escape
Tears for the part
Make a brand new start
So we made the darkness go away
Running forty laughs a day
A track of blood and hearts
I never got that far
Lights in your eyes
Take a new disguise
Vultures await, await

Ghousts and demons slumber now
The devil tries as curse and play
Solids and the stars
Fail to drawn a sound, a sound

Lights in your eyes
Take a new disguise
Vultures await, await
