Things are clear to me
Everything that haunts and bleeds
Push me down, ohh

Loss of feeling coming to a stop now
Oh my brother running through the past now
The things on your chest
My babe it's time to confess
You see of everything that haunts
And everything that bleeds, yeah
And everything that bleeds, yeah

You know it's hard to walk straight now
I bend over back now
You know it's hard to walk straight
My girl it's hard to relate
You know it's hard to walk s-s-s-s-s-s-s-straight now

Things are clear to me
Everything that haunts and bleeds
Push me down, ohh

Loss of feeling coming to a stop now
Oh my sister running through the past now
The things on your chest
My babe it's time to confess
You see of everything that haunts
And everything that bleeds, yeah
Everything that bleeds, yeah

You know it's hard to walk straight now
I bend over back now
You know it's hard to walk straight
My babe it's hard to relate
You know it's hard to walk s-s-s-s-s-s-s-straight now

These things don't seem too clear to me
My space ain't what it used to be
Don't think that I was meant to see
Don't think that I was meant to be

Running thoughts weren't meant for me
Running thoughts are all I see
Running thoughts weren't meant for me
Running thoughts are all I see

Things are clear to me
Everything that haunts and bleeds
Push me down

Loss of feeling coming to a stop now
Oh my sister running through the past now
The things on your chest
My babe it's time to confess
You see, of everything that haunts
And everything that bleeds, yeah
Everything that bleeds, yeah
Everything that bleeds, yeah
Everything that bleeds, yeah...

You know it's hard to walk straight now
I bend over back now
You know it's hard to walk straight
My babe it's hard to relate
You know it's hard to walk s-s-s-s-s-s-s-straight now
Straight now
Straight now
Straight now
