I thought I'd come to this,
I'd seen the best the best of it.
Then I surprise myself I look in to your eyes.
I'm scared to death I'll lose controll of it and ruin it.
I won't turn back on my regrets,
I need you by my side.

I don't know how I became this hero,
but I'm content with the thought of you.
Catch my heart my habit is to fall,
don't pull me back to the typical.

So now it's come to this I'm on to this I'm on to you.
Look into my eyes until tonight all I have is time.
I can't explain the way I feel but I'm feeling it.
You bite my lip again I swear I'm feeling fire.

Scared to death I'll lose control of it and ruin it.
I can't explain the way I feel but I'm feeling it.
