I'm Looking Rather Wasted,
now that you're gone,
now that i know,
you're on your own.

I'm looking rather wasted,
now that you're gone,
and now that i know,
you're on your own.

Have you seen the very thing,
That's making all the noise,
so shimmering?
Do you know,
You're not alone,
cause every little body on the surface has a silver ring?
And get it right, my brother bright,
that's making all the noise so very white.
Do you know,
You're not alone
cause every little body on the surface has a better home?

---Chorus---

And I'm Looking Rather Wasted,
now that you're gone,
and now that i know,
you're on your own.... X4

Look and see,
what better be,
Tales telling of a story so tenderly,
And Do you Know,
You're not alone,
cause every little body on the surface has a silver seem?
And get it right, my mother bright
that's making all the noise, so very white.
Do you Know,
You're not alone
cause every little body on the surface has a better

home?

Chorus X4

Have you seen this very thing,
thats making all the noise,
so shimmering?
Don't you know you are chocking by exception?
You know I'm not allowing this to happen when you're going home

Chorus X4
