Sit inside bored in a bar turn the spoon in my coffee but the answers are so far and the questions are so near yes i'm bored but i've no fear and you're sitting here with me but now i don't want you near i just want now to be free hear what I tell you now I'm sure that you can't understand my thoughts, no at all all my problems that you've never known but I'll be ever over you because my legs are too fast to be caught and my name is too long to be read
