"Go Away"

Visit "Go Away" on MotoLyrics.com

Are there surely many pressures or my head has become heavier for my arms missin'something that moves me on, and you're only brakin my delirium or my bliss it's so easy when you're a child, now all my fantasies had gone, wind had blowed off adding words so more and more

I have to shut up or implode.
I'm looikn for an easy wayout

Go away from me, reality! that comes again in worst moment of my life I'm like a bomb, ready to explode please stay away or my countdown now will start
