Time seemed like stopped i know that it's what I ever wanted but sittin in the back of car I realize that it was just a short bracket,a short time in my life experiences make my brain better than before seeing sad people returning home returning on their lifes I understand I'm just one of those people that lives few days and regret those for rest of life...

it's rainin'shame and satisfactions on the top of car that's burning km and petrol and it's going south the only way for stop thinkin of it is sleeping the only way for stop thinkin of you is sleeping more i don't know how much of me there's in your hart but today drivin home or before sleep tonite I just ask you to think of we toghether've done wish you have a good 2003 without me.
