Don't you dare look down,
Pull yourself right up now,
I can hear you breathin' in,
Their voice it stings like poison.

Whenever you need to scream,
Shout out, I'll always hear.
I'll get there a second after you yell for help.

They've all got sore,
My frozen bones don't feel the cold,
Don't you know they can't do it all day?
They've no way to play cursed cassette tapes.

Whenever you need to scream,
Shout out, I'll always hear.
I'll get there a second after you yell for help.

Whenever you need to scream,
Shout out, I'll always hear.
I'll get there a second after you yell for help.
