I can't stay with you anymore
They want to run me, run me out before
I become a bore

I won't waste a lifetime with you
There's something happening but you need to be sure
Yeah, I'm immature

Just doing your job
Won't get you by
There's more to life
Than nine to five

Do what you want, there's nothing to lose
You don't have to take back what's already yours
No need to stall

Just doing your job
Won't get you by
There's more to life
Than nine to five
