I won't be the one you love,
You won't listen, I'm second to the junk.

You may be afraid that we are the same,
And she keeps trying to guess your name,
Now we don't want to be connected tonight,
You can't keep telling me everything is alright.

See I understand, we want you to win,
But now, how can you live like this,
When it's all the time?

Follow us or forget who you are,
Wallow or remember, never be a star.

You bury yourself downtown,
And we keep digging you out,
When we want you to fly.

Follow us or forget who you are,
Wallow or remember, never be a star

Feel it with me, you won't leave,
Love it, love me, won't you see?

Follow us or forget who you are,
Wallow or remember, never be a star.

I won't be the one you love,
You won't listen, I'm second to the junk.
