Obstinant in nature and you feel so misunderstood you're a work of art, in progress
but you always got more to prove and i was ..?.. to a world of which you dream taking pieces from everyone you're not quite what you seem and its cold outside

lets take a walk in time to the island, to the mountain where we lost our minds electric and prone to give in left your mark on society, your friends, and your wrist now im outside ..?.. you in and your ways and excuses for living in sin and you say i love you oh, how we tell such lies and its cold outside lets a walk in time

fall into my sweet surrender i wont say a word

and its cold outside lets take a walk in time
