Verse

They said you're back and they say you've been down
I thought I'd talk to you now
I've got the music turned down
I've got my thoughts turned up loud

I stopped to talk and they said you been bad
You said you wish I'd come back
And its fine to talk
But I refuse to be your rock

Prechorus

I don't want to waste any time
And all that I say are lies

Chorus

And I'll sing the same song, and I'll do the same things that I've done all alone
And I'll sing the same song, and I'll do the same things but I'll do them all wrong

Verse

I got your call and they said its too late
I should have stopped by on my way
And you said you gave in Sometimes its time to cave in

You said your back and its for the last time
I built your city on my spine
But my legs are tired
And I'm not strong enough to save

Prechorus

Chorus
