"Not Enough"

I don't know, I don't know the feeling
Lonely kind of down but it's all right
I cherish every moment we're together
I don't believe in anything
But the joy of love you bring

La la la la la
Can you feel it

Roaming through the channels on the TV
A million hungry souls tag at my heart
Mother walks an hour far for water
Women, children out to sing
Of the joy that love would bring

La la la la la
Can you feel it
It's not enough, not enough
Not enough, not enough

Can you feel it
They're looking out for love
And we leave it all behind

Can you feel it
What about love
No I don't believe it

In God we trust, not enough
We pray we cry, not enough
I don't feel it, how can we leave it all behind
