"Ordinary Man"

The road is long and wild
Days go by
And on my mind, the weight
Pushing downâ€¦ Down hard

I'm breaking out, today
To spell my heart
Like everyoneâ€¦ the same
I'm trying hardâ€¦
To keep a dream alive

But everything's alright
I'm coming home

And if I bare myself would you run
Knowing all these stars don't shine
When morning comes
I know that you share my dreams wake up
I will be falling back to life

The song goes on for life
The stage is high
For everyone who came
I'm crying loud
To keep a dream alive

But everything's alright
I'm coming home

And if I bare myself would you run
Knowing all these stars don't shine
When morning comes
I know that you share my dreams wake up
I will be falling back to life
