Madness is a state and quest about peace of mind

Facts are only lies not truths that are lost in time

Sickness is the greatest healer and a passing fad

Hands up if you've seen the light but think it won't last

Talking about fakes

We're talking about liars

We're talking about Caesars and little crimes

Laying down the law is not a sane thing to do

No one should be old enough to say this is true

Singing love is dead, is holy and this won't give

Fight the right and steal them with a loving kiss, kiss

Talking about fakes

We're talking about crimes

We're talking about Caesars and little liars

Love is on the fence and talking about second sight

Love is in defense and talking about what is right

Hand's up if you've taken everything they can give

Face the race with grace and sing it won't live

Fakes and crimes

Caesars and liars

Talking about fakes

We're talking about crimes

We talking about Caesars and little liars

Talking about fakes

We're talking about crimes

We talking about Caesars and little liars
