One is for the decent times

And two is for the same

Well number three is for the big fat sinners

And four is heaven's gate

There's a soul invasion here

The soul invasion is mine

Love is in a vacant tree

I'm going to pick and choose what's mine

There's a show inside of heaven's gate

And the sinners are taking a bath

Heaven is a season and the season is time

I'm going to sit right back

Ha ha ha

Ha ha ha

With you by my side

I hardly know I speak the truth

I'm an easy equation

As I step inside of heaven's gate

Here beside heaven's fountains

I'm washing my hands with time

I'm washing my legs with truth

I step inside of heaven's gate

I walk inside of heaven's gate

I run inside of heaven's gate

Ha ha ha
