When the sun doesn't shine and it's cloudy and grey
And it's only the beginning of the wombling day
And you've got to do the washing up for Madame
Cholet

Remember, remember
Remember, remember
Remember, remember, remember (member-member)

Remember you're a Womble (remember you're a

What a Womble, Womble, Womble you are

When it's foggy on the common and you just can't see
And I womble into you and you womble into me
Just remember we're so lucky to be wombling free

Remember, remember
