i wrote this song for you
and now you're gone
i don't know what to do
goodbye, so long

and at the end of the day
would you still want it that way?

i sing this song for you but i'm alone
i don't know what to do
and you're not home

would you still want it that way?

i guess i'll go to bed with you in my head there's nothing that i can do to change what's been said

but at the end of the day
would you still want it this way?
would you still want it this way?

and now you're gone

would you still want it this way?
