I'm free like you
was it the day I left when you finally gave in too Something new,
that had to be the last day ooh.
You're bigger than this,
I could hardly see,
right in front of my eyes you stood for days, (isn't that strange?)

I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
6 ft under,
can you hear me,
wonder

I finally got out,
I looked at the world to see,
in your eyes,
I figured it out,
What took you away from me,
I know daisies never bloom,
inside of a room
There's nothing left, for me, to do,

I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
6ft under,
can you hear me,
wonder.

All the things I never got to say,
had a chance, wasted it away,
I never got to ask why.

Everywhere I go I see your face,
it can't be there,
It's driving me insane
to think its all gone by.

I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
I'm free like you,
6ft under,
can you hear me,

Either way,
I know we can make it more,
if we can only depend, we only depend,
on what fate has for us,
this will never end,
never end,
never end,
never end,
never end,
can't you see that this will never end.
