This is what we get
You took life for granted
Nothing lasts forever
Step back and make it better

Stay awake, I feel too lonely, please don't fall asleep
Take this dose of reality

This is how it ends
Past all my hate and sins,
We all have the devil hidden deep inside
Take a trip into my mind

Oh my god, she's just a little girl

Stay awake, I feel too lonely, please don't fall asleep
Take this dose of reality
This time we'll last forever
This time we'll be much better
I know we're not looking back again

This is how it ends
For taking life for granted
We all have the devil hidden deep inside
Take a trip into my mind

Daddy's leavin out the back door, not again.
