Niggas, yeah, uh
Niggas

Who's afraid of the punk police?
Niggas run the streets, no justice no peace
Fuck the law, rather draw than do time
Don't fuck with mine, cross the line, my two nines

Go baya, baya when I shoot 'em Korean mothafuckers was crooked, so niggas had to burn and loot 'em
Now the streets ain't safe at night
My niggas, straight take his life

So don't sleep when my Jeep creep up, how we hit 'em
Empty the clip, then dip 'cuz we did 'em
Lickin' of shots for Latasha that's proper Love for my niggas but a glock for the coppers

So what the fuck you wanna do now
I packed a .9 last year, in '99 I'm packin' 2 now
And even if they pull their triggers
They can shoot one man, but nothings gonna stop
The plan of true niggas

Niggas, yeah niggas, you can't fuck with us
Niggas, 'cuz bein' a nigga means you love niggas
Niggas

Ey yo, my dimes make the fiends go to sleep, so they call 'em bedrocks
Niggas is like photographers, all they take is head shots
Your last words'll be, "Damn what's all these red dots?" Niggas nowadays, they worry me, my bars is therapy

As long as you usin' them thoroughly
Muah til the day that they bury me My niggas is stronger and tighter now than they probably will ever be
And I'm a product of the '70's

The hood got niggas on punishment, that's why they never leave

If I ain't eatin' with you, I'm probably beefin' with you
If no money ain't involved ain't no need for me speakin' with you
I know you got a gun but I'm hopin' you keep it with you 'Cuz unfortunately, I'm one of them rappers that keep a pistol

And you know what the llama do
Shady, Aftermath, Ruff Ryders, D-Block, and of course
Amaru
Lotta people honor you, probably
'Cuz of the way you used to bring the drama to, whoever you wanted to

You a leader when you can get a leader to follow you
But anyway, life goes on, so I'll see you
When I art in heaven like our fathers do

Niggas, yeah niggas, you can't fuck with us
Niggas, yeah niggas, 'cuz bein' a nigga means you love niggas
Niggas
Niggas, nigga, you can't fuck with us
