Smoke rings it's a smooth attack
I guess we'll never make it back
Stand up and come alone with me
The beat ticks - 1, 2, 3

Staring out the window reasons aside
We're never gonna make it alive
Speed's cold but these hands are warm
Light speed will keep us hanging on

We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high in the cold sunlight
We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high, zero gravity high

Now the years, they're rolling on Moonlight fades into one
Can't remember if the Earth survives
Blinking lights in every single size

Twinkle twinkle on all the stars
Just make a wish and I won't be so far
Sky's the limit, so close your eyes
Space is dry, but you won't be tonight

We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high in the cold sunlight
We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high, zero gravity high

We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high in the cold sunlight
We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high, zero gravity high

Zero gravity high...

We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high in the cold sunlight
We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high, zero gravity high

We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high in the cold sunlight
We're just two deep space lovers and this feels alright
Zero gravity high, zero gravity high
