Maybe everyone's to blame
'Cause I can't fall in love to save
All the world, or anyone else
Turn on the tv and fade

Maybe it's only me

Talk to me now
Why do you run from me?
Walk up to me
Like we never met,
Break into me
I need you more than you know
Oh no, I'm under the ground.

Tell me if you want to be lonely
Or if there should be someone else
Tell me it's me
Let's run away in the rain

Maybe it should be me

My parts are falling out
It's useless, no one can save me know
I'm under somebody's painted house
I hear their surrounding voices fade when I decide to stay.

It's four in the morning
I'm naked and staring at the wall
In my lonely apartment room,
And I swear to your beauty
I'm sorry that I'm so messed up
Don't hate me when I'm under the ground.
