

World Inferno Friendship Society

"Brother Of The Mayor Of Bridgewater"

Visit "Brother Of The Mayor Of Bridgewater" on MotoLyrics.com

I've seen you in my face as I've aged,
you beautiful fuck up: so casually brave.
It made me less lonely and it helped me.
The conventions that broke your nose I find quaint.

I look for you in crowds. I don't know where you are.
Man, I'm pilled to the gills, prowling through bars.
You are missed, missed, missed as the men of The Bismarck.
I hope you know. Know that you are.

Let us now speak of brave men
who lived their lives just as they would have it.
Let us now speak of brave men
who lived their lives just as they would have it.
I would give my last dollar just to hang out with you one more day.

We've got a country between us and our age.
We've got a different set of vices but all the rage.
It made me less lonely, and it helped me
when conventions that broke your nose hit me.
Can't pretend to know how you had it.
The past's prejudices are just that.
I want you to know that it mattered, yeah,
that you walked the walk and talked the..
That you talked the talk, and fought the...

Let us now speak of brave men who lived their
lives just as they would have it.
Let us now speak of brave men who lived their
lives just as they would have it.

Let us now speak of brave men who lived their
lives just as they would have it.
Let us now speak of brave men who lived their
lives just as they would have it.
As you like it.

