Precious time what have you done to me
Youve shown me what it takes
To achieve my dreams
Ive held on to this flame
For the longest time
Dont you let this go
Keep holding on
There is a reason
A reason youve come so far
Theres so much that could destroy you
But you just keep on
Ive been waiting
For that day to come
Theres one thing
That could help me to see
How much Ive already done
Please keep telling me, Look how far youve come
Please keep helping me
Dont let me give up
Striving for something
A purpose for living
Hoping that someone can help me to stay
Fighting the failure that try's to consume me
Holding on to everything that I am
Ive been waiting
For that day to come
Theres one thing
That could help me to see
How much Ive already done
Please keep telling me, Look how far youve come
Please keep helping me, Dont let me give up
Dont let me give up.
