I'm not a hopeless romantic
I'm just romantic
Yeah, I'm very hopeless
No I'm not a liar

And If I ever find you again
And If I never find you again in this world
I'll remember what we both said
Yeah, I'll remember what you said to me

You said that I'll wait around
For you to come around
A thousand miles back west
Yeah, I'll wait around for you to come around

Wake me when I'm dreaming of you
Cause it's pointless to sleep all alone in my room
And it's cold here in Jersey
And you barely know me
And my heart wants to leave
So get up
Get up and go

And break me when I'm dreaming of you
Cause I'm better off broken left alone in my room
And it's cold here in jersey
And you should come join me
And my heart wants to leave
My heart can't move my feet

(Friday) The night I go out and think of why I'm alone
You're on the other coast
You're on the other coast
Four hours till work in the morning
And we're just getting started baby

I'll wait around
For you to come around
A thousand miles back west
Yeah, I'll wait around
For you to come around

Wake me when I'm dreaming of you
Cause it's pointless to sleep all alone in my room
And it's cold here in Jersey
And you barely know me
And My heart wants to leave
So get up
Get up and go

And break me when I'm dreaming of you
Cause I'm better off broken left alone in my room
And it's cold here in jersey
And you should come join me
And my heart wants to leave
My heart can't move my feet
Can't move my feet

I can't stop thinking about those lonely roads
That keep you away from me
I can't stop help but wonder what's next for this
And our first kiss
Because I'm weak without you here

Wake me when I'm dreaming of you
Cause it's pointless to sleep all alone in my room
And it's cold here in Jersey
And you barely know me
And my heart wants to leave
So get up
Get up and go

And break me when I'm dreaming of you
Cause I'm better off broken left alone in my room
And it's cold here in jersey
And you should come join me
And my heart wants to leave
My heart can't move my feet
