As you come to me
I feel your eyes
Pierce the night
Piercing my soul

Your wicked deception
Turns the key
Unlocking my spirit
As you take control

I follow you to the
Haunted Alcazar
Anxious to see the
Man before he dies

Hung high in the
Spooky gallows
Nervous eyes
Death defined

Lost in the
Infinite shadow
I see the light in your eye

Frozen
Forever hollow
Free from the darkness inside

Here I am walking
In this ray of light
Heading towards the
Stars that fall

As I come to you
You feel my pain
You sense the feeling
You sense my reality

Spare me and
Set me free
I foresee your promise

That I'll never die

Embrace the past in the
Final confession
Unveil the truth or
Tomorrow's sun will never shine

You came into the battle
With the fire of the sun
You shouted out to flee
As they followed me

Whoa Oh
Whoa Oh
I see you in the distance
As they capture me

I hear you cryin'
Bid farewell to me
I never expect to see you
Again

Beneath the beam
That blocks the sky
None before
Stood so alone as I

Hooded figures
Clouded skies
I feel the noose
It's my demise

I make a wish and I
See the hangman's eyes
He looks at me and sees
My sincerity I

Scan the crowd just
One last time
I see your face and
I shall say good bye

Lost in the
Infinite shadow

Frozen
Forever hollow
