His bells
Ring into the sky
Shafts of light
Pierce the night
A design from a twisted mind

His angels
Reign in blood tonight
Spirit and flesh
They're on a quest
To hunt them down and kill them all

Invaders
Black and Red they fight
A sudden flash
The lightning cracks
Heaven's on fire tonight

They fly
Through ashes in the sky
The trumpets sound
The Book is found
The Four Winds defend the light

Silhouettes against the sky
Fly in a perfect line
To the heavens
Draped in black
Devil's Angels
Advance and attack

Destroy the book
With the seven seals
Red Angels attack
With blood on their steel
The Seventh Angel
His horn will cry
As the ones all Holy
Are forced to die

Fire

Burns within their veins
A death list
The angel's wish
As they cry to die again

Angels
Falling from the sky
Death's kiss
Lifeless
Blackness and darkness forever

Silhouettes against the sky
Fly in a perfect line
To the heavens
Draped in black
Devil's Angels
Advance and attack

Destroy the book
With the seven seals
Red Angels attack
The Seventh Angel
His horn will cry
As the ones all Holy
Are forced to die
