

Sinister Sky

"The Sign"

Visit "The Sign" on MotoLyrics.com

The sun is black with judgement
The last knight takes the sword
The prophet sees the rivers red
A midnight chivalry goes to war

The rumor of the raid
Shameful tears of rage
Those that are alive
Will surely die

Enemy flags align the hill
Death soldiers prepare to kill
Hooves of steel and flashes of fire
Dripping death, hear the galloping thunder

Follow the stars tonight
Escape the blood red song
Those that are left behind
Will surely die

Invaders storm the wall
The barriers begin to fall
A crying father
Before he dies
Lifts his finger
To the sky

The Sign
The Sign
The Sign
Is written in the sky

Battle horses draped in steel
Over the hill they come in for the kill
Fatal cries and fiery eyes
Flaming swords light up the sky

Wrath and pity fused in fire
The flames are getting higher and higher
A blood red sky and the day is black
Eclipse of the sun it's time to attack

Prophecy reveals the sign
Look to the Sinister Sky
When the sun and the moon align
The sword of the warrior will shine

Follow the stars tonight
Escape the blood red song
Those that are left behind
Will surely die

Invaders storm the wall
Lifts his finger
To the sky

The Sign
The Sign
The Sign

King Of Tyrus
The bringer of death
The bloody tyrant
Caused the destruction
All the dead lie down

Uncontrolled authoritarian power
Possessed by Satan
He will devour
The King will be cast
Into the Lake Of Fire
