Maybe you were right, maybe I was wrong
Maybe we just needed some time alone
Maybe the whiskey went to our heads
That night when we touched lips under the stars
Scream your name

So break into your mother's Gin
Drink that whole bottle and then break into your daddy's beer
Drink so much you forget I'm here
Then maybe I'll leave you to your sorrow (Leave you)

I've smoked an entire ounce today
I don't know how else to numb the pain
I don't want you to leave
Will you stay if I stay I say please?

So break into your mother's Gin
Drink that whole bottle and then
break into your daddy's beer
Drink so much you forget I'm here
Then maybe I'll leave you to your sorrow (Leave you again)
Leave you
