We have done this before
I feel it in your breath
And in this room once more
A smell of living death

I've known you since the dawn
I've known you all my life
Can't stand to be the storm
Neither you, my midnight life

I won't believe con sense
You linger in my dreams
And nice to see you dance
Does all my stitches seems

You've known me since the night,
You've known me all your life,
Don't turn my weary eyes
So fuck you midnight life

And the bright is up all day
(And the bright is up all day)
I see your hollow shadow
And the dark is up all night
(the dark is up all night)
You haven't got a life

Our lifeline is right here
It's either that or this Just let your darkness shine and give me that last kiss

Wish I knew you before
Never leave you alone
Though I could never score
A shitty life this small?

And the bright is up all day
(And the bright is up all day)
I see your hollow shadow
And the dark is up all night

(the dark is up all night)
You haven't got a life

Thought I could be mature Thought we were good at this
You touch me like a whore
You dare me taste like piss

And the bright is up all day
(And the bright is up all day)
I see your hollow shadow
And the dark is up all night
(the dark is up all night)
You haven't got a life

Nineteen eighty four
I've known you since the dawn
